Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1 Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

A Place of Welcome

People different from us can really make us uncomfortable. It is like we do not share the same language or rely on the same experiences. We have different circles of friends and different sources of trust. For many of us, the best way to deal with people different from us is to avoid them.

Tolerance is good, but sometimes even tolerance masks prejudice. We tolerate those who are different as long as they act like we do. If they observe our customs, do not hang out in packs of their own kind, and visit our places with respect, we may accept them.

More challenging is to let those who are different from us change our own way of thinking—to let them open our minds to other possibilities and allow us to grow.

God spoke a message of openness through the mouth of the prophet Isaiah. The God known as the originator of the covenant with the Israelites, the God who made them a special possession, offers a different view in this prophecy. God will bring foreigners to the holy mountain and make them joyful in its place of prayer. “My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

Is your place of worship a place of welcome for those who are different?

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

LILY'S SUMMER REFLECTION

This summer I loved being able to come to MGM each day because I knew it would always be an adventure. I never knew what the day would bring or who would make a difference in my life! I loved the feeling of being able to serve others in a wide variety of ways whether it was through meals, clothing, hygiene, or simply conversation and prayer.

Personally, one thing I really liked about mgm was how they met people where they are at...if you want to get on your feet - they'll happily help you...if all you're here for is a warm meal and a new T-shirt they are equally as happy and excited to serve you. I was so lucky to be able to work with such fun-loving and servant hearted volunteers and staff.

Mgm and the people there will always hold a special place in my heart and they have impacted my life more than they will ever know! I learned so many lessons and couldn't be more thankful for the experience.

- Lilly, MGM Summer Intern

PRAYER IS POWER

This sweet couple missed our morning prayer so kindly asked if John and Steve would pray with them after breakfast.
