Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1

Isaiah 22:19-23

Accepting Responsibility

If you have ever received the responsibility somebody else once had, you know the rush of emotions that can come with a transfer of authority. Maybe it was a job you worked hard for. Maybe you were chosen for a task you never envisioned you would do. But there you are, hoping to fulfill the expectations somebody has for you and the work.

According to Isaiah, this experience happened to Eliakim, son of Hilkiyah. He replaced Shebna as master of the palace. God did not like the job that Shebna was doing. (If God is your supervisor, you had better do the work well.) Isaiah says that God thrust Shebna from office and put Eliakim in his place, dressed him in Shebna's robe, girded him with Shebna's sash, and gave him Shebna's authority. God really did not like Shebna's work.

God gave one more sign of authority. God placed the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder. You have heard of getting the key to the city. Eliakim got the key to the nation.

When God gives us a responsibility, we may be part of a major transition. But if the work comes from God, we can assume the task with assurance.
