Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1
Ezekiel 18:25-28

Life Is Not Fair

Even if you live a good life, if you do one thing wrong, people may never let you forget about it. They remind you of your past foolishness. Perhaps they call you a name. It does not seem fair because you have been so good otherwise.

Other people, hardened criminals, ask for mercy and get it. Sometimes they get rewarded. They get away with the wrong they have done. That just does not seem fair.

God speaks to Ezekiel that the unfairness lies with people, not in heaven. God is willing to let people change and grow.

Our opinions of our companions change less frequently than they do. People who are good make bad decisions. People who do evil repent. It is inconvenient for us to change our opinions of who they are.

But God sees to the heart. God knows a person's intent. God knows what a person is responsible for and how sincerely they are trying to do what is right.

That is a good thing for us. It means that if we who are basically good commit some wrongful act, we can still obtain mercy when we repent. Mercy comes from a God who expects us to change.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

RONALD'S BLESSING

This is the smile of man who is finally getting a roof over his head after spending the past 10 years living on the streets.

Despite being an amputee and restricted to a wheelchair, despite being robbed several times and being taken advantage of, and despite being homeless, Ronald cannot keep that big smile of his hidden. Nor should he of course. With his ID now and connections made to a couple other social service providers, Ronald is just "closing the deal" as he told me last Thursday on his housing arrangements. We are blessed to have been able to help Ronald make progress. Thanks for your support.

A huge Thank You to Church of the Ascension in Overland Park for having a thermal sock drive for MGM. Bags and bags and bags of great, warm, thick thermal socks were brought in for our winter distribution. We may have enough socks to last all winter thanks to the generosity of this parish.

And Thank You so much to the Respect Life Committee at Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Smithville for the surprise gift of $400 toward our general fund!
