All Souls Remembrance Mass

Monday, November 2, 2020

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, many family members and friends were unable to attend the funeral services of loved ones. The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception will honor those who have died in the past year at a special 7:00 pm Remembrance Mass in the main Cathedral. Other Masses offered for All Souls Day will take place at 9:00 am and 12:15 pm.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1

Isaiah 25:6-10a

The Banquet of Life

Death creeps into our lives almost secretly. We lose members of our families and close friends. We buckle up in the car as an unreflective admission that each trip poses mortal danger. We age and experience the gradual loss of our abilities.

For those who believe in Christ, death is but a passageway to eternity. The funeral rites of the church help us ritualize our belief even as we mourn our loss.

Isaiah offers images of God's providence that fit the hope of Christians. He imagines a new Jerusalem, settled on God's holy mountain. In his vision, God provides a rich banquet—not just minimal food for the hungry, not just basic sustenance, but a banquet in which God's people taste delight. Isaiah imagines death as a veil that covers everyone, a web woven over all the nations. But in this vision, that veil is fragile, subject to destruction by God's deliberate might.

For Christians, the contrast between death and life is the contrast between hunger and banquet. Whenever the sadness of death threatens to overpower the people we love or our very lives, our belief in Christ brings all the comfort of rich food and drink.
