MAX PRISON MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Incarceration presents many challenges for our Catholic faithful, but you can help. Each month we receive requests from prisoners and prison chaplains seeking Bibles, catechisms, RCIA books and other faith-related items. Please prayerfully consider making a financial contribution to the diocesan MAX Jail & Prison Ministry Fund for Prisoners to help offset the costs of supplies and shipping so more prisoners will have access to faithforming materials. Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1 Wisdom 6:12-16

Neither Remote nor Aloof

Education is more than gaining knowledge about things. It is attaining wisdom. It forms people in a way of life. Religious education especially has this goal: not just teaching things about church, but forming people as disciples.

Even when we leave school, we still have much to learn. The lessons of life come easily at times, but also at great cost. Those who go through life open to learning will gain true wisdom.

The Book of Wisdom imagines God's wisdom as a woman. She is not aloof and hard to discover. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of those who desire to see her. She goes around where people live, appears to them on the streets, and greets them with care. The wisdom of life is easy to grasp for those who want to learn.

How does your community make it possible for you to gain wisdom? Do people gather for formal education? Do guests come to speak? Does your community promote the reading of books and the discussion of ideas?

God's wisdom is not meant to be remote. It is ready for us before we are ready for it. When we go to seek wisdom, wisdom will be there waiting.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

SAFETY & WARMTH

We thank Goodwill Industries for providing really nice cloth facemasks for our guests. And we thank the students of Bishop Miege Catholic High School for donating several bags of winter clothing! We've been very blessed by generosity after announcing our major winter coat partner, Project

Warmth, was not going to be able to provide the coats they usually do each winter. God is so gracious, seeming to always open one door when we see one closing. You are God's instruments as you help this parish fulfil its ministry to the less fortunate in our city.

PRAYERS

Please keep in your daily prayers the guests of MGM. This year we've seen too many of our daily guests suffer and too many have lost their lives. We've celebrated some great successes, but the struggle is very hard.

Immediate Needs:

- Hoodies/Sweatshirts
- Thermals
- Gloves
- Hand warmers
