“What Am I Doing for Advent This Year?”

Join Fr. Paul Turner, Michael Sanem, and other parishioners in discussing Fr. Paul’s booklet on Advent. Prepare for Christmas by entering more intentionally into this Advent Season.

We will meet over Zoom on Sundays 12/6 and 12/20 at 1:00 p.m. Register by emailing Michael Sanem at msanem@kcgolddome.org. Booklet will be provided.

What Am I Doing for Advent This Year?

PAUL TURNER

Advent is a time of hope. It isn't Christmas, and it isn't "the holiday season." It is its own special time of preparation. This booklet will guide you through the busiest season of the year as you await the coming of Christ.

Adopt-a-Candle

We've been using smaller altar candles to save some money. Some of our members learned of this and have donated anonymously $430 to pay for two sets of six candles. Thank you!
Does anyone want to match this?

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King
Last Sunday in Ordinary Time A 1
Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

Our Gentle Judge

God will judge us. Our belief in that promise fills us with anxiety and hope.

When we remember Christ the King, we acknowledge that he came to us, taught with wisdom, performed miraculous deeds, formed a community of disciples, died on the cross, and rose again. We believe that this Jesus will come again to judge the living and the dead.

If we read the prophet Ezekiel, though, the coming judgment need not frighten us. Ezekiel reveals God as a shepherd who bends over backward to tend the flock. When the sheep get lost on a cloudy day, God rescues them. When they grow tired, God lets them rest. When injured, God binds them up. When they are sick, God heals them.

Before God is a judging shepherd, God is a tender shepherd.

The good news about judgment is what precedes it. God's care comes first. When we get lost amid the challenges of life, God rescues us. When we are tired and ill mannered, God gives us rest. When we are injured by sin, or sickened by depravity, God will grant forgiveness. There is no judgment before there is care.

God's first wish is not the destruction of sheep. God's first wish is salvation.

MAX PRISON MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Incarceration presents many challenges for our Catholic faithful, but you can help. Each month we receive requests from prisoners and prison chaplains seeking Bibles, catechisms, RCIA books and other faith-related items. Please prayerfully consider making a financial contribution to the diocesan MAX Jail & Prison Ministry Fund for Prisoners to help offset the costs of supplies and shipping so more prisoners will have access to faith forming materials. Laurie Jo at holmes@diocesekcs.org or call the Human Rights Office at 816.714.2364.

Donating Securities and Mutual Funds

Are some of your shares of stock or mutual funds higher than when you bought them? This provides you a wise method of giving to Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Donating appreciated stock or mutual fund shares is a strategic gift-planning method. In most cases, the donor receives an itemized deduction in the full amount of the fair market value (FMV) of the shares donated as of the date of the gift. This value is deductible up to 30% of the donor's adjusted gross income and can be carried over for up to five years after the year of the gift. Please consult your financial or legal adviser.
