Second Sunday of Advent

2 Peter 3:8–14

Delays, Delays

We wait for many reasons. We wait because others got in line before us, or because the staff is shorthanded. We wait because someone hasn't come home yet, or because the soup isn't hot. Children can't wait to be treated like adults, but they must. They must wait until they mature, learning more about life, the character of others, and the character of themselves.

It is this kind of waiting—the waiting for children to mature—that is one of the characteristics of Advent.

When the Second Letter of Peter was written, people had been expecting the imminent return of Jesus Christ. He had promised to come again. His disciples believed him. Many thought they would live to see him return, but it hadn't happened yet. Now a new confusion arose. Where is Jesus? Why does he delay? What is he waiting for?

The letter says, "The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard 'delay,' but he is patient with you." Jesus is not dragging his feet because he is slow. He is taking his time because we are slow. He does not wish "that any should perish but that all should come to repentance."

The day of the Lord will come, and we'd better be ready. But one reason for the "delay" is to give us time to repent, reform our lives, and awaken our expectation for Christ. That is what Advent is for.

What Am I Doing for Advent This Year?

PAUL TURNER

Advent is a time of hope. It isn't Christmas, and it isn't "the holiday season." It is its own special time of preparation. This booklet will guide you through the busiest season of the year as you await the coming of Christ.

“What Am I Doing for Advent This Year?”

Join Fr. Paul Turner, Michael Sanem, and other parishioners in discussing Fr. Paul's booklet on Advent. Prepare for Christmas by entering more intentionally into this Advent Season.

We will meet over Zoom on Sundays 12/6 and 12/20 at 1:00 p.m. Register by emailing Michael Sanem at msanem@kcgolddome.org. Booklet will be provided.

Adopt-a-Candle

We've been using smaller altar candles to save some money. Some of our members learned of this and have donated anonymously $430 to pay for two sets of six candles. Thank you!

EAGLE TO THE RESCUE

Thank you so much St. Michael the Archangel Catholic High School and to senior Jacob Smitka for the winter drive for MGM. So many of our guests will benefit from having a warm, dependable coat to get through the winter.

The school drive happened as an eagle scout project for Jacob, pictured with his mom and dad. The goal for the school was to collect 150 winter coats. The actual total collected was 296!

Jacob, you are a great example of leadership.
