Did you know?

The Livestream of Christmas Midnight Mass at the Cathedral has reached 5,000 people? The Livestream of the Easter Vigil reached 3,800 people?

The Livestream of Sunday Mass at the Cathedral is watched by an average of 300 - 500 people? Since the pandemic started, over 250,000 minutes of Mass at the Cathedral has been viewed by people online?

You are invited to contribute to the fund to upgrade our live stream equipment. It is a crucial outreach ministry, especially during the current pandemic. We are hoping to purchase a 3 camera system AV system with HD, 30X Zoom capabilities with audio and digital mixers that will improve the livestream experience and give us even more opportunities for evangelization.

Fourth Sunday of Lent (Year A)

1 Samuel 16:1b, 6–7, 10–13a

Anointed with the Spirit

Once in a while, God gives us a sign of hope. The clouds of winter yield to the sun of spring. A new friendship develops. An infant brings new joy to a family. Although the season of Lent has urged us to think about sin, it does so against a background of hope. We do not hear the story of sin without hearing also the story of salvation.

When Samuel visited Jesse to anoint a king from among his sons, Israel received a sign of hope. God chose not the eldest son of lofty stature but the youngest son who was busy tending sheep. Samuel anointed him with a horn of oil and God's Spirit rushed upon the young man. We learn his name only at the end of today's reading: David.

David, overlooked by those who should have seen with God's eyes, became a symbol of Jesus. The legendary kingship of David foreshadowed the blessed kingship of Jesus. Jesus is the one we call "Christ," a title that means "anointed."

On your journey through Lent, you have entered a period of renewal. Are you beginning to see God at work within you this season? Can you see the Spirit of God in others where you have not noticed it before?

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

VOLUNTEER BLESSINGS

Thank you Dylan Bollinger for your great work volunteering for our breakfast program so often over the past several months. Dylan is an Assistant Prof at Avila University, he wrote of his time at MGM for an upcoming newsletter:

“I moved to Kansas City back in August of 2018. I noticed a large population of homeless in the city. I knew there was a need, and something I was being called to. I found Morning Glory in October 2018, and have been volunteering for 2 and 1/2 years. I feel very blessed to be able to give back to this community in need and am excited to make a positive impact in the community through this ministry!”

We LOVE our Volunteers! Currently we can only have 5 volunteers in the building at a time, when we open for meal service inside again, hopefully beginning at Easter, we may need more.

SPRING SHOE DRIVE

Just like you, our guests are happy to put away the heavy winter boots and put on more comfortable walking shoes. If you have extra tennis shoes, keep MGM in mind! Drop off T-F morning or 10-1 Sat-Sun, or even at the parish office until 3:00 M-F.
