Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Philippians 2:6-11

Extreme Life

On Palm Sunday we experience the greatness and the poverty of the human spirit. As Jesus entered Jerusalem, the crowds acclaimed him as the Son of David. But as he stood trial before Pilate, the same crowds called for his crucifixion.

On Palm Sunday, near the end of Lent, we have come in touch with the greatness and poverty of our own lives. Throughout this season we have reflected on our sin, but we have also experienced God's grace in communion, community, and Scripture.

On Palm Sunday, we also hear about the greatness and poverty of Jesus. Jesus was in the form of God, but he took on human form. He had all greatness as God, but he did not cling to it.

St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians says, "Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave." Jesus humbled himself to become like us and to experience what we experience—even death. "Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name."

Sometimes in a single day we experience unfettered joy and inconsolable grief. A child is born, but someone dies. We receive mercy from a stranger, but we fail to love our neighbor. The extremes of human life are vast. But Christ came to us embracing both extremes and all that is in the middle. All, all of human life he redeems and makes his own.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

COMFORT FOOD & SPECIAL SERVICE

Sometimes you just have to have some biscuits and gravy, mmmmm. Leave it to our dynamic Thursday volunteers, and Steve, to make it happen.

Every day our volunteers deliver the very best, personalized service to guests. Whether in the café or in EA (emergency assistance), our priority is to make the day special for each person God sends to us.

When we received a very, very nice Bugatchi shirt, Louise said, “I wish Paul would come around, this would be perfect for him”; Louise really knows our guests since she’s been volunteering many years. The very next day Paul came for the first time in months. Doesn’t he look great! in that beautiful shirt!

OH NO !!!!

Unfortunately, vandals looking for copper destroyed one of the main air conditioning units for the café. The unit is likely too old and too expensive to repair. Still, we’ll get some estimates.
