Pentecost Sunday: Vigil Mass

Exodus 19:3–8a, 16–20b

The Presence of God

Many believers can tell about a time they experienced the presence of God. It may have been at childbirth, after successful surgery, during a walk at the ocean, at the quiet dawn of a new day, or in the wisdom shared by a trusted friend. God appears to us in ways great and small.

One of the most dramatic stories of the presence of God concerns Moses. He heard God speak on Mount Sinai. God instructed him to tell the people, “If you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people.” So Moses descended the mountain, reported to the elders, and all the people responded together, “Everything the Lord has said, we will do.”

A few days later they looked up. “There were peals of thunder and lightning, and a heavy cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast.” All the people trembled. Who wouldn’t? Smoke rose from the top of Mount Sinai. The people stood below. Moses spoke to God, and God answered in thunder.

On Pentecost Sunday, the disciples of Jesus experienced God in tongues as of fire and a noise like a strong wind. As Moses received the law, so the disciples received the Holy Spirit.

Our experience of God may be dramatic or common. But it can always transform us, strengthen our belief, renew our covenant with God, and give us confidence to proclaim what we know: God is here.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

THE QUESTION

A little over a year ago, Moira and Carl started volunteering, not together but each single. They both love the work and minister to our guests beautifully. Carl would grind coffee beans and serve as our barista; Moira usually packed the peanut butter or served fruit. They both are quiet, humble, joyful servants.

With some nudging from Steve and a couple volunteers, Carl finally asked Moira out. He actually told Steve he was looking for a sign; Steve said, “I’m the sign—ASK HER OUT”.

This past Friday after they both volunteered for breakfast, Carl took Moira on a walk and asked for her hand in marriage. He arranged to have their priest meet them in front of the Cathedral to bless their engagement, and then we all celebrated at Spokes.

SUMMER STYLE

MGM is having these great looking summer hats printed for guests. We’ve ordered the first batch for about 100 guests, but need funding for more. Hats are $7.50 each. If you can make an additional gift beyond your annual appeal contribution, our guests would love to show their MGM pride.
