Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ephesians 5:21-32

Who's in Charge Here?

When the Bible says, "Wives should be subordinate to their husbands, for the husband is head of his wife," it just doesn't sit right with a lot of people.

There are other beautiful images in this passage from the Letter to the Ephesians: "Christ is head of the church and savior of the body." "The church is subordinate to Christ." "Husbands should love their wives." All those thoughts are in there. But a lot of people quit listening after the first line.

Ephesians compares the love of Christ for the church with the love of husband and wife. It says Christ is head of the church but loves the church as his own body, which it is. When the letter quotes Genesis about a man leaving home to be joined to his wife so the two shall become one flesh, it seems to say that is what Christ has done—left his heavenly home so that he and the church might be one.

Ephesians has in mind that the church will recognize Christ as its head but be reassured that the head "nourishes and cherishes" the body. We have a loving relationship with Christ, even an intimate one. And we have no problem saying Christ is in charge. But all that is hard to hear because it seems like the metaphor goes too far. Should wives be subordinate to their husbands? Not necessarily. Should we be subordinate to Christ? Absolutely.

TELL CONGRESS, “NO TAXPAYER-FUNDED ABORTIONS”

Your voice could help save millions of lives. The Hyde Amendment has protected Americans from funding abortion for 45 years and is credited with saving the lives of over 2.4 million children to date. Now, members of Congress want to take away this law that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century. Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion. The members of your parish are invited to join our diocesan response to this nationwide effort. The goal is for millions of Catholics to sign the petition at www.NoTaxpayerAbortion.com. Easy ready-to-use parish tools can also be found on the website.

BEATING ADDICTION

Sometimes not even making $30 an hour is enough motivation to stay away from the bottle. That's what happened to one of our guests recently. Two years ago Dave started to get back on track. Family. Sobriety. Shelter. ID documents. Employment. Time. Plans. Stability. We didn't see Dave for a long time, more than a year-and-a-half. With the high pay for his skilled work, Dave could provide for himself and his family, save for retirement, be much more at ease. And he was for quite some time.

But the draw of the addiction was too strong. Now Dave is back at MGM, working hard to again gain back what was lost.

WORKING MAN

Frank has always been a hard worker. You can tell by his hands he isn't afraid of difficult tasks, and you can tell by his personality he really likes people. A work ethic, determination to change for the better, a strong mind and strong back, quite the recipe for success.

Frank and I made a deal, that if he would get on a good path, stay clean, and seek the help he needs, then I'd make a call on his behalf to our friends at C&C Produce to get him a driving job and pay for what it takes to get him ready. He lived up to his part. We gave Frank interview clothes, and paid for a DOT physical and ID. He did the hard work himself.
