Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

James 1:17–18, 21b–22, 27

Don't Just Stand There

Some people like being a Christian more than acting like one. They know the basic stories about Jesus—that he was born in Bethlehem, that he was baptized by John, fasted in the desert, gathered disciples, worked miracles, taught with eloquence, was arrested, tried, crucified, died, buried, and rose again. And that's all important to know. But then that's it. They pick and choose from the way Christians live. Worshiping on Sundays, serving others, making peace, confessing sins, forgiving others, contributing to charities, practicing morals, and learning more about religion—well, maybe yes and maybe no. Calling yourself a Christian is easier than acting like one.

But James is having none of that. The Letter of James in the New Testament takes a strong position about the importance of acting, not just being. "Be doers of the word and not hearers only," James says. Otherwise, you delude yourselves.

The Word of God comes to us in many ways—at church, in private prayer, in spiritual conversation, and in the events of our daily lives. If we are alert to God's presence, we will hear the Word. But God usually speaks in order to get something done. God would like a little action. Hearing the Word is good—a lot of people don't even take the time to do that. But acting on the Word—that's what makes pure religion.

Congratulations to Courtney Stahl and Salvador Caballero 8-21

Last Friday, the 20th, was the drop off day for the Knights of Columbus school supply drive. Several of our Knights delivered the donated school supplies to Our Lady of Hope School. Once again, there will be plenty of supplies to go around. Thank you to everyone that was generous enough to donate to this year's drive. We would especially like to thank Mark Whitlow and his company—Office Products Alliance—for once again donating a substantial amount of supplies for the children. The Cathedral Knights appreciate all of your support!

FROM THE DIACONATE OFFICE

Men, have you ever considered a new way to serve God and the Church?
Has the Holy Spirit touched your heart to consider a vocation as a deacon?
Wives, do you see the gifts of ordained ministry in your husband and in your marriage?

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is beginning its inquiry phase for those men who are interested in a possible vocation to the diaconate. The Office of the Diaconate will be providing information and discernment sessions throughout the diocese in Spring 2021, with the intention of beginning the next deacon formation class in January/February 2022.

The formation period is a time of discernment. If you would like to find out more information about serving the Church as a deacon, visit www.kcsjatholic.org/office-of-the-diaconate/ to view requirements, even an on-line inquiry form.

Once completed, one of the Deacon Directors will reach out to you and answer your questions. Or, if you prefer, you may call the Diaconate Office at 816.714.2302.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

HEROES FOR US ALL

MGM hosted another vaccination clinic last Friday and many more took advantage of the opportunity! We will host another clinic again next month. The four guests below were happy to have the pics taken and proud to do their part.

On September 12 at 3:00pm the Chiefs play their season opener, our guests are allowed to watch with us at MGM if they bring their vaccination card. It'll be a great party!
