James 2:1-5

Getting to Know the Poor

If a beautiful person walks past you, you may do a double take.

It's human. When you make new friends at school, you'll try first the ones with an attractive appearance.

And if you hear that someone is rich, you'll want to get to know that person. We're always curious to know who has money and to become their friends—just in case.

Even at church, we probably give more attention to those who have than we do to those who have not. It's human. And it's wrong.

The Letter to James cannot stand this hypocrisy. "If a man with gold rings and fine clothes comes into your assembly, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in," James knows what will happen. You'll pay more attention to the rich than you will to the poor. If we do that, we "become judges with evil designs."

James appeals to us on behalf of the poor. "Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" The poor often have a deeper faith, a stronger dependence on God, and a keener insight into the Spirit than do the rich. We owe them our respect.

When you have the opportunity, don't try to meet someone with money. Get to know someone who has less. You will receive a greater reward.

Congratulations to Jim and Jeanne Matthews on their 50th Wedding Anniversary! 8-29-21

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

NEW EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE DIRECTOR

Allie Freese is now on board leading MGM's EA department. This critical part of MGM is where guests receive clothing, hygiene, sleeping bags, coats, identification assistance, referrals, and much more. The EA Director interviews guests one-on-one, supervises the EA volunteers, and organizes donations. It is a big job!

In addition to working at MGM, Allie just began a two-year graduate counseling program at Avila University to deepen her impact on impoverished communities. Before coming to MGM, she was working as a case manager at Catholic Charities of Northeast Kansas, managing a large caseload of long-term low-income and homeless clients. Prior to that she worked as a Foster Care Adoption Specialist with Cornerstones of Care and spent a year after college in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps as a Family Support Counselor for San Diego Youth Services. She is immensely talented and has a natural talent for relating with the hurting, poor, and lonely. She'll make a big impact at MGM.

Allie replaces the work that Michael Sanem and Lisa Dunbar were sharing. Lisa and Michael jumped in during the pandemic to help do whatever was needed to make sure our guests could still get the services they needed. Thank you, thank you, thank you!
