Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

James 3:16—4:3

War and Peace

A world without wars would be a great place to live. How we yearn for days of peace, when killing stops and soldiers come home.

But peace is not just the absence of war. Peace is the willingness to share from our abundance, to sacrifice for the needy, and to advocate for justice throughout the world. To achieve peace means more than laying down weapons of conflict. It means taking up the tools for a better world.

“Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from?” asks the Letter of James. “Is it not from your passions?” Jealousy and selfish ambition bring about disorder and every foul practice, James says. Habits of self-absorption lead to indifference toward others. That breeds resentment and foments conflict.

We covet what we do not possess. Some with envy even kill others, but they still cannot obtain inner happiness. Many of us are not content with what we have; we want more income to buy more things. But we do not supply the needs of others. We are too busy feeding our own passions. And they will never satisfy.

Peace comes from God. And it can start at home. It comes from the willingness to do with less, to eliminate jealousy, and to promote mercy. That will make the world a great place to live. “The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace.”

Morning Glory Ministries

September 12, 2021

by John Kraus, MGM Director

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

GAME DAY

Vaccinated homeless guests gathered Sunday to watch last week's exciting game! As they entered MGM they showed their vaccination card and received a Chief's t-shirt. We all enjoyed a great meal and the roller-coast of a game. A great time!!!

A TEXAN NOW

Many of our volunteers know John Aquino, a frequent MGM guest who always talks about his faith and about his recovery in AA.

John moved to Fort Worth this month. He left a message on my phone on Monday, "I'm in Fort Worth now, the cancer is getting better one day at a time; I'm gonna beat this thing with the power of God." John is a man who truly lets his faith lead his life.

Immediate Needs:

- Tennis Shoes, guests are allowed one pair every 3 months. In October we switch to winter footwear.
