Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hebrews 5:1–6

Your Vocation

God has chosen you. You may not always feel it. You may at times feel as though you’re in the wrong place, the wrong job, or the wrong century. But God has chosen to create you here and now. God has given you gifts to face the present and to prepare for the glory of the future.

We often speak of vocations in terms of religious life. Truly, God chooses some people for special ministry. The Letter to the Hebrews speaks about the vocation of Old Testament priesthood as well as the priesthood of Jesus. “Every high priest is taken from among men,” the letter says. It does not say, “Certain men decide to become high priests.” Rather, “No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was.”

Even Jesus did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest. Instead, God had him in mind with two prophecies from the Book of Psalms: “You are my son: this day I have begotten you”; and “You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”

It is often easier to see a vocation among religious men and women because their work is totally dedicated to God. But others also have a vocation—in the family, at work, and in society. God has chosen you. God has taken you from among others and placed you in the world now to proclaim the nearness of glory.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

HAVING FUN SUPPORTING MGM

MGM is a recipient of a gift from the Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation's (Mask)uerade Across Missouri 2021. The IICF hosts a fundraising event in KC and one in St. Louis and the proceeds are split between charities. Thanks IICF for including MGM. Our connection is John Lewis who works in the industry and is a member of MGM's Board of Advisors. Pictured are John (wearing the crown) and his wife Lisa (middle) and Allie and me from MGM. We had a lot of fun at their party and will put the funds to great use for our homeless guests.

Thanks also to SpotBidWin, an online auction platform raising funds for non-profits. SpotBidWin hosted an auction in October with some of the proceeds coming to MGM. This will happen regularly, register for a bid number at www.spotbidwin.com.
