Help Us Shape the Future of Parishes

One of our greatest hopes for the future is that the Church in the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph will grow and thrive. As part of the Diocese's long-term vision, all the parishes in our deanery have become involved in a process to plan for the future. There have been site visits, meetings with parish leaders, and studies of area and parish data. A report on the findings with possibilities for the future has been compiled.

- Please join us for an "Envisioning Our Future" event on Wednesday, November 17 from 6:30 pm to 8 pm in the O'Hara Room.

The initial report will be presented and parishioners will have an opportunity to help shape a future plan.

Prior to the event, please review the "Key Findings and Observations Report," available on the diocesan website at <https://kcsjatholic.org/i-ii-xi-keyfindings/>. Password: D3mograph!c$1211

Help us shape the future of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception parish.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hebrews 9:24-28

Once and For All

Some music groups were called "one-hit wonders." They produced a song that rose to the top of the charts, but then you never heard from them again. They kept writing, singing, and recording, but they never scored another popular tune.

Other groups were deemed more successful if they produced hit after hit, year after year. By repeatedly coming up with popular songs, they proved their value. Yet even these groups eventually failed. Their past songs will be known as "oldies" as their creativity wanes.

Some of the work we do has to be produced again and again. Even if we have one successful year, it usually isn't enough to last forever.

The Letter to the Hebrews contrasts the annual work of Old Testament high priests with the one sacrifice of Jesus. High priests had to offer sacrifice for themselves and for the people every year. But Jesus offered his sacrifice once and for all. He did not have to renew it. By offering his own blood on the altar of the cross, he has appeared once for all "to take away sin by his sacrifice." Jesus was no one-hit wonder. His work never failed. It continues afresh every day, every generation, every life.

We are sometimes discouraged by our endless toil. There are days we wonder if our work will ever cease. We are not perfect, but Christ is. His one sacrifice has brought us salvation.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

CONGRATULATIONS CAFÉ STAFF!

Every year the Jackson County Health Department does surprise inspections of all restaurants. Of course we always welcome these visits, and of course MGM again passed last week's inspection without a single violation!! In terms of health code, our café is among the very highest rated in Kansas City.

Serving over a hundred meals a day and also keeping our commercial kitchen and very large eating area clean and organized is no easy feat. Great thanks goes to our café staff:

Lead Kitchen Manager Steve Bruns
Weekend Manager Arai Bigge
Custodian Shawn Jenkins

Don't forget to pick up some extra hand warmers for our homeless guests when you're out shopping. Drop off any morning at MGM or at the parish office until 3 each day, or just drop in the bin in the front foyer of church before Sunday mass. Thanks for all you do!

TOUGH GETTING AHEAD

He was released from jail at 7am. It was 40 degrees. He was in shorts and a t-shirt. He had spent the last two months in jail because he couldn't post the $100 bond on his charge for marijuana. His family won't talk to him. At least he was told to find the Gold Dome.

He left MGM two hours later happy, well-fed, warmly-clothed, with a plan for the day, and knowing that someone cares.
