Second Sunday in Ordinary Time C 2
1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Master of a Trade

A jack of all trades is master of none, the saying goes. If you can do a lot of things, you probably do not do any of them well. Some talented people possess many gifts, but it does not take long to figure out their shortcomings as well.

Most of us are happy if we can do one thing well—whether it is a class at school, a task at work, parenting at home, or playing a sport. The problem is, none of us can survive doing one thing well. We need one another. We need other people who do other things well. We need specialists in auto mechanics, computer repair, teaching, and cooking to get us through the day. If you do one thing well—decorating church, for example—you help out a lot of other people who do not know how.

Paul tells the Corinthians that the Spirit is manifest in many ways. “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” These manifestations include wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, and other mighty deeds. In a parish they surface at worship, education, service, and even social activities that build the community.

You may not think your gift can do much good, but it probably can. The Spirit gives gifts away “for some benefit.” This new year, you can put yours to work so that others may come to know the many gifts and wisdom of God.

Thank you all who have made a gift to this year’s 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal, “To equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up of Christ.” We want to remind you that the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) is a united effort by our parish families which supports ministries that serve and evangelize the people in our diocese. Your gift will form seminarians and deacons, evangelize, and share Christ’s love through acts of kindness, care for retired clergy, and protect God’s most vulnerable—the hungry, homeless, elderly, unborn, sick, prisoner and lonely. Please pray and discern in your heart a gift of love by responding to the letter sent to your home. Included is a pledge card that gives you several options to assist you in giving.

At Seedtime: Celebrating a Diocesan Day of Prayer Friday February 4, 2022

Seeds represent a microcosm of all life. By our prayer, we acknowledge God's love for all creation and our responsibility to care for it. As planting season begins in late winter or early spring we the Church seek God's blessing on seeds, crops, and all creation. Gardeners, farmers, and all growers especially ask God's protection for seeds (or young plants) in fields, gardens, and greenhouses.

In the past, when the Church marked certain times of the year with Ember Days and Rogation Days, it included prayers for the Blessing of Seeds at Planting Time, as well as prayers for the Blessing of Fields and Gardens.

Our diocesan day of prayer occurs on Friday, Feb. 4, 2022. Parishes can celebrate God's gift of seeds as a microcosm of all life in several ways:

- Parish masses on Feb. 4 use the Roman Missal's prayers "At Seedtime" (#27 from Masses for Various Needs and Occasions). Blessing of seeds can occur in this context.
- Parish formation programs can use this insert from the Office of Divine Worship (<https://kcsj catholic.org/office/divine-worship>), with groups of children or youth for sacramental prep or care of creation ministries.
- Households and small faith communities can use the insert on a suitable day later in the planting season.
- At the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Feb. 4 (12:15 p.m. mass) Bishop Johnston will bless all seeds present. Seeds can be brought in person, or sent with someone ahead of time. Especially invited are gardeners, farmers, greenhouse growers, and all who work with plants or seeds.
