Third Sunday in Ordinary Time C 2
1 Corinthians 12:12-30

Body Block

It is hard for some people to get along. We think the worst of strangers in our way. We get tired of people we work with every day. Kids in the family fight with one another. It is hard to get along.

There are many reasons to work at it, though. Fighting creates tensions we do not need. It puts us on edge and violates the interior harmony we seek. Work gets done more smoothly, learning happens more peacefully, love is shared more fully, when people get along.

Paul tells the Corinthians that they should think of themselves as one body, not as different people. Earlier on in this letter, he already complained about the divisions in their church. The one community was splintering as people took sides under different natural leaders. They intuited that they were one community, but they lived as though they were many who were not getting along.

Paul urged them to think of themselves as one. “The body is not a single part, but many.” The foot and the hand get along. So do the ear and the eye. They do not compete with each other. They do not claim to be the only part in the entire body. “If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.”

It is easier to get along when we start from this premise: We are already one.

We are hopeful that 100% of our registered households will respond to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal, “To equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.” While the level of sacrifice will differ from parishioner to parishioner, an Annual Catholic Appeal “gift of pledge” this year is within the reach of most of our people. Please prayerfully consider supporting the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal with a pledge or one-time gift as your means allow. Your support is much needed and will be greatly appreciated!

Help Shape the Future of our Parish

One of our greatest hopes for the future is that the Church in the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph will grow and thrive. As part of the Diocese's long-term vision, all the parishes in our deanery have become involved in a process to plan for the future. There have been site visits, meetings with parishioners, and studies of area and parish data.

A proposed plan for the future has been compiled. Please join us to review and provide input on the plan.

At Seedtime: Celebrating a Diocesan Day of Prayer Friday February 4, 2022

Seeds represent a microcosm of all life. By our prayer, we acknowledge God's love for all creation and our responsibility to care for it. As planting season begins in late winter or early spring we the Church seek God's blessing on seeds, crops, and all creation. Gardeners, farmers, and all growers especially ask God's protection for seeds (or young plants) in fields, gardens, and greenhouses.

In the past, when the Church marked certain times of the year with Ember Days and Rogation Days, it included prayers for the Blessing of Seeds at Planting Time, as well as prayers for the Blessing of Fields and Gardens.

Our diocesan day of prayer occurs on Friday, Feb. 4, 2022. Parishes can celebrate God's gift of seeds as a microcosm of all life in several ways:

- Parish masses on Feb. 4 use the Roman Missal's prayers "At Seedtime" (#27 from Masses for Various Needs and Occasions). Blessing of seeds can occur in this context.
- Parish formation programs can use this insert from the Office of Divine Worship (<https://kcsj catholic.org/office/divine-worship>), with groups of children or youth for sacramental prep or care of creation ministries.
- Households and small faith communities can use the insert on a suitable day later in the planting season.
- At the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Feb. 4 (12:15 p.m. mass) Bishop Johnston will bless all seeds present. Seeds can be brought in person, or sent with someone ahead of time. Especially invited are gardeners, farmers, greenhouse growers, and all who work with plants or seeds.

COST OF COLD

Several parishioners have asked about Nichole, the young woman found outside the front doors of the church in below freezing conditions earlier this month. Unfortunately, we've not been able to get news of her current condition. Because she was found in time she will survive, but very likely the severe frostbite of her feet mean amputation.

MASON GABRIEL

Congratulations to MGM's Volunteer Coordinator Jen Tran and husband Victor. Mason Gabriel Tran was born Jan. 15. WOOHOO!!!

WHERE DID YOU SLEEP LAST NIGHT?

This is typically the third question I ask people who come to Morning Glory Ministries in need of help.

The first question is, "What is your name?"

The second question is, "Do you have an address or are you on the street?"

If the answer is, "On the street," then I ask, "Where did you sleep last night?"

"Under a bridge," one said

"In an abandoned car," said another.

"In a tent," said another.

"In an abandoned house," yet another.

The temperature the night they slept in these despairing places was ten degrees.

My fourth question was, "What can we do for you today?"

Each gave the same answer. "A coat."

Immediate Needs:

- Sleeping Bags
- Rolling luggage
- Tents
