Easter Sunday ABC 2a Colossians 3:1-4

New Neighbors

Today we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus. He has entered a new neighborhood, and he has made room for us. After three days in the tomb, Jesus rose again to display his power over death—all death, his and ours. The resurrection is a sign of God’s power and of human hope. We have nothing to fear. We trust God’s complete desire to end all misery and to raise us up in glory.

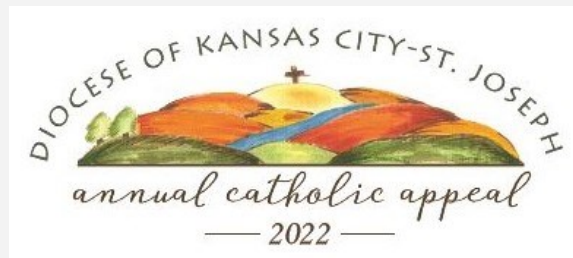

The Letter to the Colossians says, “If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above. ... Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.”

With the resurrection of Jesus, we have moved into a new neighborhood. We no longer live in a place of sin and suffering. We live in hope and glory. We sustain this happy life when we seek what is above, not what is on earth. We contemplate the life of prayer, charity and peacefulness, and not the life of greed, selfishness and hatred. We live in a new place away from the addictions of old.

This Easter day brings immense rejoicing. It also brings expectations. It expects that we who are privileged to live with the risen Christ will keep up the neighborhood. We will have all the help we need from the Spirit who dwells within us. This Easter, let us joyfully think of what is above and place ourselves at the service of the One who will raise us up in glory.

EASTER SUNDAY

by Tom Turner,
MGM Education Minister

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

“Rolling Stones”

"You know the story of Easter, when the large stone was rolled back allowing the resurrected Jesus to exit his tomb?" I asked this question of a homeless man who comes for breakfast at MGM.

"Yeah, I know the story." He replied.

"Ok then, what is the stone that's keeping you in your "tomb" that you need rolled back?"

He said, "That's a good question, let me think. I would say the stone that keeps me down is my lack of self-discipline. I have a hard time managing money and how much I drink."

This young man wants and hopes to quit living on the street. He knows he needs to take one step at a time.

I told him that being able to identify the stone that keeps you "entombed" is a good first step.

He said he knows he needs to get connected to AA and he has already landed a part-time job. He's on his way to experience his own Easter transformation.

We all have "stones" in our life that prevent us from living life more fully. Easter Sunday is a good day to pray to Christ and ask him to help us identify our stones and to roll them away. Then, we too, can not only celebrate Easter, but experience it as well.

A ministry of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception
