Third Sunday of Easter C 2
Revelation 5:11-14

Slain and Victorious Lamb

Easter celebrates the resurrection of Jesus, and it also proclaims the church's faith in the resurrection of Christians. Death looms as the fearful fate of every human life, but Easter removes the finality of death and opens a broader vision. It is hard to imagine that one single event could have such an effect on human history, but that was the meaning of Jesus' resurrection.

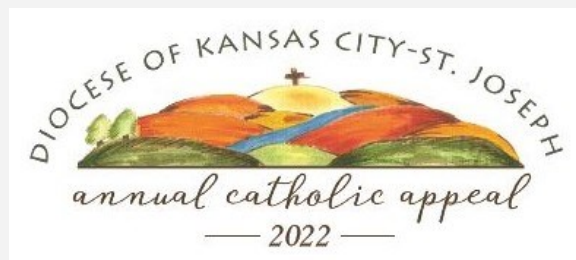

An image from the Book of Revelation illustrates the point. John saw a huge crowd of angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. There they sang praise to a Lamb—a dead lamb. In the history of animals, no dead lamb has ever left much of a mark on the world. But this one did. The Lamb is Jesus—slain, but standing, and receiving the praise of all living things.

A lamb first entered our religious tradition as a symbol of Passover. On the night before Israel's exodus from Egypt, faithful Jewish families slaughtered a lamb and rubbed its blood on their doorposts. They were spared the worst of the plagues, the death of the firstborn. That plague finally forced Pharaoh's hand and set the people free.

Jesus Christ appears in Revelation as a slain Lamb. His blood protects us from the harm of death and sets us free from sin. Through his death and resurrection, he has brought us forgiveness and opened a way for us through death to life.

Through your support of the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA), you have helped the entire Catholic Church of Northwest Missouri and the people of our region. By providing education, help for the poor and adult faith formation, we enrich our community in ways unknown.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families.

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

A GOOD BREAKFAST SPOT

Breakfast at Morning Glory Ministries can resemble an airport, lots of people walking fast, toting luggage or wearing backpacks. Since they have no place to store their belongings, those who are homeless have to lug all their belongings wherever they go. It's tiring.

In addition to receiving a hearty breakfast here, they can literally unburden themselves, that is, set their belongs down on the floor. After they have finished eating, most will stay seated until the dining room is closed at 8:00 AM. They need the break from carrying their burdens

The Gospel story this weekend is about another group of people who come to breakfast who need to unburden themselves. After Jesus' death, the apostles went back to work, that is, fishing. After fishing all night they had caught nothing. On top of being tired and empty-handed, some, no doubt, felt guilty for not standing by Jesus when arrested, especially Peter.

So, the resurrected Jesus appears to them. First, He showed them where to catch more fish. Then he said, "Come, have breakfast." He bar-b-qed some fish for them on the beach. During breakfast, he essentially forgave Peter for denying him. In various ways, thanks to Jesus, the apostles could let go of their burdens of sadness, guilt, fatigue and having no food.

We all need someone or some place where we can unload our burdens. Like the homeless at Morning Glory, or the apostles in the Gospel, we all need a good "breakfast spot."
