Fourth Sunday of Easter C 2

Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

Dressed for Heaven

We do not know what we will look like in heaven. At the resurrection of the body, will we have the body of our youth? Will we look as we do when we die? These are natural questions, but eternal life will be far greater than what we can now imagine. When we are freed from time and place, we will enter the mysterious presence of God in ways more perfect than we can know.

Still, people use metaphors to envision eternal life, and the Book of Revelation is no exception. John sees a great multitude standing before the throne and the Lamb, “wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.” John saw heaven in a vision of vesture and accessories.

White robes clothe heavenly beings in several passages of the New Testament. Jesus’ clothes turn white at the transfiguration. Angels clothed in white appear at the resurrection. Heavenly beings throughout the Book of Revelation wear white. This is one reason why we wear white on the day of our baptism, and why we cover a Christian’s coffin with a white cloth. We are clothed already in the uniform of heaven.

The festive palm branch is a sign of the victory of eternal life. Artists throughout the ages have depicted saints carrying palms.

We do not know what we will wear or carry, but we can expect that the Lamb will shepherd us to springs of life-giving water.

Tomorrow's Priest Collection | May 14-15

Seminarian education is among the largest expenses of our diocese, but also one of the greatest investments we can make for our future. With tuition, room, board and other expenses, the cost of educating a single seminarian is about $45,000 per year.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph ask you to prayerfully consider donating to the Tomorrow's Priest Collection held the weekend of May 14-15—this collection offsets expenses for our men in formation for the priesthood. A mailer with donation envelope will be sent to all registered parishioners in the diocese, but you can also contribute via the 2nd collection at Mass the weekend of May 14-15 or donate online at kcpriest.org/tomorrows-priest-collection. In addition to financial support, please pray that Our Lord will continue to increase the number of men from our Diocese being called to the priesthood.

All are invited to attend the upcoming Transitional Deaconate Ordination held 10 am May 28 at the Co-Cathedral in St. Joseph, and the Priesthood Ordination held 10 am June 25 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Thank you for your continued support of priestly vocations!

Morning Glory Ministries

May 8, 2022

by Tom Turner,
MGM Education Minister

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

WHAT WILL HEAVEN BE LIKE?

What do you think heaven will be like? Some have imagined that we will sitting around on soft, puffy clouds, or, that we can eat as much food as we want and never gain weight, or we will be reunited with our loved ones, or, all of the above.

In the second reading this weekend, St. John has a vision of what it will be like, He writes that in heaven there will be no hunger, no thirst, everyone will have shelter, all will wear washed robes and all tears will be wiped away.

Sounds good, can't wait.

In the meantime, everyday at Morning Glory Ministries we see people who are hungry, thirsty, without shelter, unwashed clothes and hard lives. When they come here they receive food, drink and fresh clothing. Their lives are still hard, but at least for an hour or so each day, they get a taste of St. John's vision of heaven.

We pray in the Lord's prayer, "thy kingdom come, on earth as it is in heaven." We are asking God to make St. John's heavenly vision come now, on earth, that is, no more people who hunger or thirst or who have no shelter.

People hunger for many things: food, acceptance, forgiveness, companionship. People thirst for: water, love, meaning in life. People seek shelter from: cold, heat, illness, loneliness.

A ministry of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception
