Revelation 21:1-5a

Rehab Heaven

Many cities have had to build anew because of tragedies that befell them. Floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, and hurricanes have wiped away centuries of civilization. In times of war, aggressors have done the same thing. New buildings sometimes mask the difficulties of the past, the need that forced a people to build again.

Many individuals have personally endured trauma that forced them to start again. They have had to relearn how to walk, use their hands, speak, or think. Whether they endured physical damage to their bodies or emotional damage to their minds, they touched bottom and started all over again.

Near the end of the Book of Revelation, John envisions an entirely new Jerusalem. This one comes down out of heaven, and it becomes the dwelling place of God. The One who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." But new things often come at a price. We may not want to pay, but often we have to.

Starting over again is a challenge no one wants to face. Whether your hard drive crashes or your basement floods, no one wants to have to start over.

But when we do, good things can happen. We sort out what is really important. We learn about our capacity for times of distress. And we reinvigorate our belief in the One who brings us from death to life, the One who proclaims, "Behold, I make all things new."

Tomorrow's Priest Collection | May 14-15

Seminarian education is among the largest expenses of our diocese, but also one of the greatest investments we can make for our future. With tuition, room, board and other expenses, the cost of educating a single seminarian is about $45,000 per year.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph ask you to prayerfully consider donating to the Tomorrow's Priest Collection held the weekend of May 14-15—this collection offsets expenses for our men in formation for the priesthood. A mailer with donation envelope will be sent to all registered parishioners in the diocese, but you can also contribute via the 2nd collection at Mass the weekend of May 14-15 or donate online at kcpriest.org/tomorrows-priest-collection. In addition to financial support, please pray that Our Lord will continue to increase the number of men from our Diocese being called to the priesthood.

All are invited to attend the upcoming Transitional Deaconate Ordination held 10 am May 28 at the Co-Cathedral in St. Joseph, and the Priesthood Ordination held 10 am June 25 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Thank you for your continued support of priestly vocations!

Loving & Serving the Homeless of Kansas City

PITCHING A TENT

The picture above is of a "tent city" that periodically pops up in Westport. You may have seen it, or others like it in other parts of town.

Imagine if you heard of someone who had been living a comfortable life, that is, financially secure and in a nice home, who decided to leave that lifestyle and pitch a tent to live among the homeless so to help them. We would probably think that person has either "lost it" or is doing something quite admirable.

In one of the readings this Sunday, St. John tells us that "God dwells with the human race." The Greek word that has been translated as "dwells," also has been translated as "pitched his tent." In other words, God has pitched his tent with the human race.

Like the person who gave up everything to live among the homeless, God has left the comforts of heaven, as it were, to pitch his tent among us. St. Paul describes it this way, "He has emptied himself and taken the form of a servant." (Phil 2:7). When it comes to humanity, God will sacrifice everything to help us.

The next time you see a homeless person's tent, in addition to praying for that person, see it as a reminder that God has pitched his tent to live near us.
