A Light to the Nations

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 49:3, 5–6

Imagine God telling you, “Job well done! Congratulations!” How proud we would be to know that God’s favor had rested on us.

Imagine God saying next, “Because you did so well with this task, I want to give you some­thing more to do.” Would you gulp in apprehension? Would you calmly accept the new directions? Or would you take on the new task with excitement?

In Isaiah’s prophecy, God tells Israel, “You are my servant.” These words comforted the chosen people because it reminded them that God proudly kept their friendship. But God went on. “It is too little for you to be my servant. . . . I will make you a light to the nations.” Ancient Israel would show not just their own people but also other nations how to walk in the light of God.

For Christians, this prophecy points ahead to Jesus, who became known as God’s servant at his baptism. Jesus won God’s pleasure as the longed-for Messiah. But God asked for some­thing more—for Jesus to save all the nations. Jesus opened wide God’s doors of salvation. He accepted God’s task.

What about you? What task have you done that makes God proud? Is God asking you for something more? What might that be?
