Seek Justice, Seek Humility

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

People who have had a close encounter with death often feel like God has saved them for some reason. They cannot explain it. They do not know what that reason might be. Whether they were preserved from an accident, aggressive violence, or a near-fatal illness, they believe that God has some future purpose for them. The experience often makes them appreciate every day. It makes them humble.

The prophet Zephaniah spoke to people who had had that kind of experience. He spoke not just to individuals who felt they had been spared. He spoke to a people who felt that way. They had survived a war. They had endured persecution. They had lived through exile. These people had a name for themselves. They called themselves “the remnant.” The experience deepened their faith. It kept them humble.

When Jesus blessed “the poor in spirit” (Mt 5:3) he addressed the descendants of the people who had escaped this danger. They formed a remnant who had remained faithful after years of persecution and waiting. They were humble.

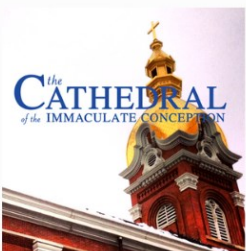

What calamity has your community survived? How has God protected you? Has it made a difference in your life? Has it kept you humble?

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

We are hopeful that 100% of our register households will respond to the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal, "Joyful of Hope." While the level of sacrifice will differ from parishioner to parishioner, an Annual Catholic Appeal gift or pledge this year is within the reach of most of our people. Please prayerfully consider supporting the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal with a pledge or one-time gift as your means allow. Your support is much needed and will be greatly appreciated!

The Diocesan day of Prayer at Seedtime

Seeds represent a microcosm of all life. By our prayer, we acknowledge God's love for all creation and our responsibility to care for it. As planting season begins in late winter or early spring we the Church seek God's blessing on seeds, crops, and all creation. Gardeners, farmers, and all growers especially ask God's protection for seeds (or young plants) in fields, gardens, and greenhouses.

At Seedtime: Celebrating a Diocesan Day of Prayer Saturday February 4, 2023

Seeds represent a microcosm of all life. By our prayer, we acknowledge God's love for all creation and our responsibility to care for it. As planting season begins in late winter or early spring we the Church seek God's blessing on seeds, crops, and all creation. Gardeners, farmers, and all growers especially ask God's protection for seeds (or young plants) in fields, gardens, and greenhouses.

In the past, the Church marked certain times of the year with Ember Days and Rogation Days, including prayers for the Blessing of Seeds at Planting Time, as well as prayers for the Blessing of Fields and Flocks (Book of Blessings).

Our diocesan day of prayer occurs on Saturday, Feb. 4, 2023. Parishes can celebrate God's gift of seeds as a microcosm of all life in several ways:

- Parish masses on Feb. 4 use the Roman Missal's prayers "At Seedtime" (#27 from Masses for Various Needs and Occasions). Blessing of seeds can occur in this context.
- Parish formation efforts can use this insert from the Office of Divine Worship (<https://kcsj catholic.org/office/divine-worship>) with children or youth for sacramental preparation, or for Care of Creation ministries.
- Households, religious communities, or other spiritual groups can use the insert on a suitable day later in the planting season.
- Bishop Johnston will bless seeds at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Saturday, Feb. 4 at 10:00 a.m. mass. Seeds can be brought in person, or sent with someone ahead of time. Especially invited are gardeners, farmers, greenhouse growers, and all who work with plants or seeds.

Blessing of Seeds 2023

Introduction

Leader: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Let us praise God, who plants the seeds and reaps the harvest. Blessed be God forever. R. Blessed be God forever.

Leader: Today we seek God's blessing of these seeds and the crops they will produce. Christ reminds us that, unless the seed is planted in the earth and dies, it will not yield fruit. As these seeds grow and are cared for, may they be signs of the new life from God. {Book of Blessings 992}

Scripture Reading (suggestions)

Genesis 1:1, 1-12, 27-31 Deuteronomy 28:1-6 Isaiah 55:10-13 Joel 2:21-26
2 Corinthians 9:6-10 Matthew 13:31-36 Mark 4:26-29 Luke 12:16-21 John 12:23-25

Intercessions {Adapted and abridged from Book of Blessings 979}

Almighty God look with benign providence on your children; give us nourishment and growth by blessing the earth with the fruitfulness that sustains human life. As your children, we pray to you by saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

- You bless the earth and abundance flows in its pastures; grant that by your blessing, our fields may yield the food we need. R.
- You make the wheat grow that provides our daily bread and the gift of the eucharist; give us a crop made rich by abundant rain and fertile soil. R.
- You feed the birds of the air and clothe the lilies of the field; teach us not to worry about what we are to eat or drink or wear, but to seek first your way of holiness. R.
- You have told us that Christ is the vine and we are branches; grant that by living in your Son we may produce much good fruit. R.

Conclusion

O God, from the very beginning of time you commanded the earth to bring forth vegetation and fruit of every kind. You provide the sower with seed and give bread to eat. Grant, we pray, that this land, enriched by your bounty and cultivated by human hands, may be fertile with abundant crops. Then your people, enriched by the gifts of your goodness, will praise you unceasingly now and for ages unending. We ask this through Christ our Lord. R. Amen. {Book of Blessings 982}

Closing Song suggestions:

A. (Sung to the tune of "All Creatures of our God and King")

Dear mother earth, who day by day	The fruits and flowers that verdant grow,
Unfolds rich blessing on our way,	Let them praise his abundant show.
O praise God! Alleluia!	O praise God, O praise God,
	Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. (St. Francis of Assisi)

B. (sung to the tune of AR HYD NOS ["All Through the Night"])

For the fruits of this creation,	In the just reward of labor,
Thanks be to God;	God's will is done;
For the gifts to ev'ry nation,	In the help we give our neighbor,
Thanks be to God;	God's will is done;
For the plowing, sowing, reaping,	In our worldwide task of caring
Silent growth while we are sleeping,	For the hungry and despairing,
Future needs in earth's safe keeping,	In the harvests we are sharing
Thanks be to God.	God's will is done; (© F. Pratt Green)
