Message from Michelle Reichart

Dear Cathedral parishioners and friends,

I wanted to share with you personally that I will be leaving my role as Pastoral Associate. I have accepted a position with a social services agency in Kansas. My new position will require regular travel to Wichita, my hometown, and will allow me to reconnect with family and friends.

It was a very difficult decision to leave the Cathedral family. Dustin and I have been blessed immeasurably by your friendship and witness of faith. It has been an honor to worship with the Cathedral community, walk alongside those receiving the sacraments, and spend time in fellowship with with you.

July 7 will be my last day as a full-time employee at the Cathedral. I will continue serving part-time during the search for the next Pastoral Associate.

Dustin and I look forward to visiting often. May God continue to bless each of you, your families, and the Cathedral community.

Congratulations!

This Lunch & Learn Series will be hosted by the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception and led by Ed Van Buskirk, founder of If U Love Me ministries.

At each session, Ed will give a short lesson on how the Commandments are relevant in our everyday lives, how they protect what is holy and sacred and how they call us to greatness and into relationship with Jesus and with one another. Following the session, Ed will lead a discussion on how to apply the Commandments in daily situations.

A Better View

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Exodus 19:2–6a

The journey of human life crosses many deserts. For years we await the realization of our dreams. We make sacrifices we hope will find reward. We sense the direction we are heading, but we do not know the obstacles along the way.

Looking back at the road we have traveled, we are amazed to have come so far. Looking ahead fills us with apprehension or adventure. In the desert of life, we need reassurance. We need signs that we are on the right path, that our future still lies ahead, and that God has not abandoned us.

Crossing the desert, the Israelites approached such a place. They left one desert behind and entered the desert of Sinai. There Moses climbed the mountain, where he got a better view. God spoke to him, pointing out how far Moses had come, not just in miles, but also in intimacy. God had rescued the people from danger. If they remained faithful to the covenant, they would be God's special possession.

Every so often, we need that view. We need to look back for the strength to forge ahead. We discover in our past the care of God, and we build our trust in the future. Through this Sunday's rest, we recommit ourselves to our covenant.

Happenings & Opportunities Throughout the Diocese

In Matthew 16:17, Jesus tells Peter that he is the rock upon which the Church will be built. Just so, a husband and wife, united in the bond of marriage, are to be the rock upon which the “domestic church” is built, living in imitation of the Holy Family. Such a profound calling deserves our best efforts. A Worldwide Marriage Experience will provide you with the inspiration and the tools to live out that call daily. Spots are available on the following upcoming dates: July 14-16, 2023, in Kansas City, KS. For more information, visit the website at www.WWME.org or contact Brad & Maggie Harris at 405-206-1600, or email at Brad.Maggie.Harris@wwme.org.

The Diocese of Kansas City–St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City–St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families.

Please contact Whitney True–Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.
