Acts of God

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
1 Kings 19:9a, 11–13a

There is a legal term for a natural disaster. It is called an “act of God.” It is a little unfair to libel God with deeds of destruction. Even so, when the forces of nature reveal their strength, people become aware of their own weaknesses and meditate on the power of God.

But when people go in search of God, they rarely go to the place of an earthquake, a fire, or a tornado. They go to a quiet place. They watch the sunrise. They pick a wayside chapel. They sit by the ocean. They find God’s majestic voice in whispers of peace. When Elijah fled the grasp of the angry and murderous Jezebel, he eventually found himself in a cave on the mountain of God, Horeb. There he witnessed God passing by. Not in the strong wind, not in the earthquake, not in the fire did Elijah behold God’s presence—but in a tiny whispering sound.

Noise surrounds much of our day. The radio or television breaks the morning silence. Ambient music filters through elevators and grocery stores. Our cars cannot block out the cacophony of traffic.

It may not take an act of God for us to be able to find God. It may just take a quiet space.

The Diocesan Green Mass is at St. Elizabeth This Year!

Come join us!! If you believe that we, as Catholics, are responsible for the care of all life and for the health of our earth as God's creation, please join us at the Green Mass on Sunday, Sept. 10 at 10:00 AM. This Mass is meant to celebrate, support, and encourage those who take this to heart and have acted on it personally, as families or communities. It is rooted in Pope Francis' Encyclical Laudato Si' which challenges us to reflect on the ways we use or mis-use earth's resources and how those actions may disproportionately affect the poor and disenfranchised. This includes any and all parishioners who are ecologically conscious, pray for refugees, drive an electric or hybrid car, recycle at home and all who care about "Our Common Home" - planet Earth. Green Teams from throughout the diocese are invited, as well our EmbRace Justice and Belong ministries. We will have a reception in Seton Hall following the Mass which will include treats and activities.

GREEN MASS

for all those who work for environmental sustainability and anyone who cares about "Our Common Home."

ALL ARE WELCOME
