Dear Members and Friends of the Cathedral,

Come over tomorrow night for our Open House at the Bishop Hogan Center, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.. We'll have refreshments and a cash bar, as well as live music. I've been working on some pieces to play with Michael Gordon, the symphony's flutist. Dr. Mario Pearson will also take a turn at the keyboard. Join us for a fun evening. Scott tells me the parking lot is supposed to be striped and open by Friday night. I'm praying he's right!

I'm back from several trips now and am looking forward to the day (soon) when we can move into our new offices.

Once the parking lot opens on weekends, I'll be inviting you to park there and enter the cathedral through the Bishop Hogan Center. Its gathering place will provide an opportunity for socializing before and after services. The vesting sacristy for priests and deacons will be in that area as well.

You're the first to hear we've received a challenge gift. If we can raise $1 million in the next 6 months, the challenge donors will match it with another million. Please let me know if you'd like to visit with me about participating.

You're also the first to hear I'll be introducing Regan Getman at Mass this weekend. Regan will tell you about herself and the work she's doing as our new Events Coordinator for Father Donnelly Hall.

This weekend Father Ken is away, so I'll celebrate reconciliation and all the Masses. I'll be preaching as well—about a very interesting moment in the life of St. Paul, detailed in this Sunday's second reading.

The Knights of Columbus invite you to pray the rosary with them after the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday.

Those interested in joining the church meet on Sunday mornings.

On Tuesday we continue our series on Faithful Citizenship. Learn more and sign up here: <https://www.kcgolddome.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/06/Faithful-Citizen.jpg> .

In Christ,
