Dear Members and Friends of the Cathedral,

Greetings from Washington DC, where I'm in the middle of my work for the International Commission on English in the Liturgy this week. We've been reviewing some elements of the Liturgy of the Hours, as well as the institution of lectors, acolytes and catechists—among other topics. It's a full week, and I stay over to write up a report before I come home. Father Aloysius Kasoma will celebrate reconciliation with you on Saturday and preside for the Mass afterwards and again on Sunday night. Fr. Ken Riley will be with you Sunday morning for both Masses.

Young adults are welcome to Catholics and Coffee inside the Bishop Hogan Center after the 11 a.m. Mass.

We are moving into our new offices inside the Bishop Hogan Center. You may conduct parish business in person on site again. Thanks to all the workers—still at it!—who are making this beautiful building our new home.

On weekends, I'll be inviting you to park in the lot and enter the cathedral through the Bishop Hogan Center. Its gathering place will facilitate socializing before and after services.

A reminder that we've received a challenge gift. If we can raise $1 million in the next 6 months, donors will match it with another million. Please let me know if you'd like to visit with me about participating. Our clock is ticking!

I won't be on YouTube live tomorrow while I'm in DC, but I plan to resume next Friday at 4:30 as usual. Tune in on our YouTube page.

Those interested in joining the Church meet on Sunday mornings.

On Monday night, we'll have a safety training for ushers and others who may be interested.

On Tuesday we continue our series on Faithful Citizenship. Learn more and sign up here: <https://www.kcgolddome.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/06/Faithful-Citizen.jpg> .

Would you like to help the cathedral as a reader for the weekend Masses? Please go to our website and click "Get Involved."

Kids! You can sign up now for Vacation Bible School the week of July 22. Find info here:
