

ÅNGSTRÖM BRASS

Artisanal Sounds for the Modern Ear

PRESENTS:

resonances

resonances is based around a constellation of emotional vignettes, brought to life through pairings of instrumental music and poetic texts.

The title of the program alludes not only to the gorgeous acoustics of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, but also to the mutually enriching emotional “resonances” between the selected music and poetry.

resonances explores themes of love, loss, and living, through the subjectivity, yet universality, of the human experience. In lieu of program notes or informative speeches relating historical anecdotes or musical analysis, the poetry readings will orient your emotional, rather than intellectual, experience of the music.
