

The background of the entire page is a collage of various playing cards scattered across the surface. Visible cards include the Ace of Hearts, King of Clubs, Queen of Spades, Jack of Diamonds, 10 of Hearts, 9 of Diamonds, 8 of Spades, 7 of Clubs, 6 of Hearts, 5 of Diamonds, 4 of Spades, 3 of Clubs, 2 of Hearts, and the Ace of Spades. The cards are arranged in a way that they appear to be falling or scattered, creating a dynamic and thematic border around the central text.

The Source of Security

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King
Last Sunday in Ordinary Time
Daniel 7:13–14

Every day we seek security. We fasten the safety belts in our cars. We set alarms to prevent theft. We help watch our neighbors' homes. We take care of our health. We take what measures we can to help us feel secure.

There are few guarantees. Tragedy can befall even those who take precautions. The things of this world can provide supports for safety. But none of them can make us totally secure.

Security ultimately comes from God alone. The power of God is stronger than any theft, accident, or injury. It rules over illness and death. The power that created us will re-create us in love.

Jesus, our savior, had a favorite image for himself. He called himself the Son of Man. He took that expression from the Book of Daniel, where the prophet envisioned one like a Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven. He receives dominion, glory, and kingship. All nations served him. His dominion extended over all lands and times.

In borrowing that image, Jesus gave his disciples a message of hope. He himself would lose security, suffering torment and death. But he himself would reign over all.

The church year ends with a vision of hope for each of us who seeks security: the coming of the Son of Man.

CATHEDRAL RESTORATION PROJECT

The Building Glory campaign is expanding to fund necessary renovations inside and outside of our beautiful cathedral.
