Dear Members and Friends of the Cathedral,

I'll return to YouTube live Friday at 4:30 if you'd like to watch a video version of this update. You may also interact with me live on that platform. Don't forget to sign up for our YouTube page.

Congratulations to parishioners Kyle Steffensmeier and Erica Hoeflerin, who will be married this Saturday! They are regular participants at Sunday Mass.

Bishop Johnston will preside for the morning Masses on Sunday. Fr. Ken Riley will celebrate reconciliation on Saturday and preside for that Mass. I'll be around all weekend and will celebrate Mass Sunday night.

Enjoy coffee and donuts after the morning Masses on Sunday.

Near the baptismal font you'll find our Book of Remembrance. Please inscribe the names of your deceased loved ones throughout the month of November. We'll remember them in our prayers.

Those interested in joining the church gather on Sunday mornings at 10 and on Wednesday evenings at 6:30.

Monday at 6:30 p.m. we continue faith formation featuring the series The Chosen. Come see the video and talk about the life of Christ.

On Thursday you may learn more about spreading the Catholic faith. Some background information is here: <https://www.discipleshipkc.org/cco/>.

Thursday afternoon the finance council meets.

Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Deacon Julio offers a presentation called Eternal Rest. He'll explain the Catholic Church's teachings on the four last things: death, judgment, hell and heaven. More information is here: <https://www.kcgolddome.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/11/Eternal-Rest-Flyer.jpg>.

The annual fundraiser for Morning Glory Ministries is coming up on December 4. Find information here: <https://my.onecause.com/event/organizations/1837feeb-c962-4a88-be1d-a2b8c561e93a/events/vevt:c67400fo-b183-4be9-92eb-310abf66ab7c/home/story>.

Please fill out your pledge cards and support both the Annual Catholic Appeal and the Cathedral parish. The parish is behind on our bills and we need your help to catch up. Can you increase your pledge to the parish envelope this year?

We've received a challenge gift from a non-parishioner who is a new donor. If we can raise $1 million before the end of the year for the renovation project, the donor will match it with another million! We stand at about $550,000 already. You may pledge over a period of years, and it will all count toward the match. Please let me know if you'd like to visit about participating. You may pledge either to the Building Glory campaign for the Hogan Center <https://kcgolddome.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/CKC-Pledge-Form-FINAL.pdf> or to the restoration project <https://www.kcgolddome.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/02/BG-page-1.pdf>. WE NEED TO RECEIVE THESE PLEDGES BEFORE DECEMBER 31.

In Christ,

Fr. Paul Turner

Pastor
