

Prayer of the Faithful for Weekend Masses

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Day of the Poor

2:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, 2024

9 a.m., 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 17, 2024

Minister: Our response is: Lord, hear our prayer.

That on this World Day of the Poor, we remember the impoverished, the hungry, the homeless, and those who sleep rough on our streets and doorways. May they receive respect, generosity, kindness and support, particularly now as we approach the cold days and nights of winter.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

That those who have been reduced to poverty because of the wars across Palestine, Israel and Lebanon, between Ukraine and Russia and in Myanmar and Sudan will be lifted up into places of peace.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

That we will never stand in judgment of the poor, but recognise that each person's story and situation is unique, known to them and to God.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

That our eyes be opened to the poor in our own community and that we give them help and support according to our means, especially through gifts of our time, talent and treasure to Morning Glory Ministries.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

That we may remain vigilant and prepared for the coming of the Lord, always watching and praying, as Jesus instructed.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

That we may trust in the promises of God, knowing that heaven and earth will pass away, but his words will never pass away.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

Omit at 11 a.m.: That the sacrifice of Christ may bring comfort and eternal life to all who have died, and that the Church may continue to pray for their purification and salvation. We remember Archbishop James Patrick Keleher and all those whose names are recorded in our Book of Remembrance. We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

Mass intentions

2:30 p.m.: That the Ermita family, for whom we are asked to pray at this Eucharist, may find the peace of mind and comfort Christ bestows in his mercy.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

9 a.m.: That the people of the Diocese of Kansas City-Saint Joseph, for whom we are asked to pray at this Eucharist, will receive the grace this week to be always attentive to the Lord and ready for his return.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

11 a.m.: That the sacrifice of Christ may bring comfort and eternal life to all who have died, and that the Church may continue to pray for their purification and salvation. We remember Archbishop James Patrick Keleher, all those whose names are recorded in our Book of Remembrance and, especially, Dan Vanover, for whom we are asked to pray at this Eucharist.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

8 p.m.: That the members of the Cathedral parish, for whom we are asked to pray at this Eucharist, will receive the grace this week to be always attentive to the Lord and ready for his return.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.
