Offering What We Have Received

The Holy Family of Jesus,
Mary, and Joseph
1 Samuel 1:20–22, 24–28

If you took a toddler to church and left the child there for the pastor to raise, you might be accused of negligence. But when we hear that Hannah performs a similar action in the First Book of Samuel, we are to emulate the holiness of her family.

Hannah had gone childless throughout her life, but Eli, the Old Testament priest at the temple in Shiloh, prophesied that she would conceive a son. Hannah promised she would give the son back to God. Eli's prophecy came true, and Hannah made good on her promise. She brought a bull, some flour, some wine — as well as her son — and gave them all to Eli. She later bore five more children. The first son, Samuel, eventually succeeded Eli as priest of the temple.

Although Hannah's specific actions would seem strange today, the general intent of her spiritual life remains an admirable model. Hannah asked God for a particular petition. When God granted her heart's desire, Hannah returned thanks to God by offering in sacrifice some of what she treasured.

All our families strive to be holy. Not every mother has a son. Not every son becomes a priest. But every family can learn the basics of a friendship with God. If you want something, ask. If you receive it, give thanks. When you give thanks, do it with a sacrifice of something you treasure.

CATHEDRAL RESTORATION PROJECT

The Building Glory campaign is expanding to fund necessary renovations inside and outside of our beautiful cathedral.

“Every gift and pledge received before the end of 2024 will be matched by a generous donor up to $1 million. Give today!”

"Last year, we were so broken.

I had our divorce papers in the car and was going to present them to him after the holidays. As we sat under the tree, I was shaking and crying, thinking that this was the last Christmas we were going to have as a family.

Instead, we went To Retrouvaille in January, and learned how to communicate and how to laugh and hold hands again"
